

A1 Breakthrough 1.1

Verbal What can you do?

- You introduce yourself :
  - who are you, how old are you?
  - do you have children
- you understand a short, slow spoken chat with a lot of repetition
- you speak slowly and hesitantly

A2 Waystage 1.2

Verbal What can you do?

- you have short, social conversations.
- you provide basic information about yourself, work, environment, education.
- you understand slow spoken talk on a familiar topic.
- you speak slowly.

B1 Treshold 2.1— 2.2

Verbal What can you do?

- You have a simple conversation at the counter, you repeat, ask questions.
- You understand the main points in a clearly structured presentation.
- You briefly and slowly give your opinion on a familiar topic.
- The pace is thoughtful.

B1 Treshold 2.3—2.4

Verbal What can you do?

- You follow the outline of a presentation.
- You are giving your opinion on a familiar topic.
- You have a simple conversation at the counter
- The pace is quite fast.

B2 Vantage 3.1

Verbal What can you do?

- You understand the news on television.
- You explain a problem at the counter and can have a conversation to find a solution.
- You can express arguments in a discussion.
- The pace is normal.

C1 Effectiveness 4.1

Verbal What can you do?

- You understand a debate without a clear structure.
- You understand a lecture on an unfamiliar subject.
- you discuss complex topics.
- The pace is normal.